

Data Analyst

Information Technology Department
Reports to the Data Management and Reporting Supervisor

Company Profile

Alaska National Insurance Company is a multi-line commercial insurer servicing businesses in the western United States for over three decades. We provide businesses with financially secure protection from risk, supported by the highest quality in customized policyholder services. We offer career paths in Underwriting, Claims, Loss Control, Audit, Assigned Risk, Information Technology, Accounting and Administration. Alaska National is a financially "A" rated company with over 200 employees in Alaska, Pacific Northwest, Northwest Inland, and California.

Alaska National Insurance Company provides a strong benefits program which includes 401(k) program, and profit sharing. We provide medical, dental, vision, life and disability insurance, as well as paid leave and holidays.

Summary and Purpose

Responsible for building and maintaining our Enterprise Reporting Platform.

General Responsibilities

- Develop processes that drive reporting simplification and efficiencies.
- Provide insight to the lines of business
- Build wide range of reports using SSRS and Power BI
- Interface with Finance, Underwriting, Claims and other internal departments to analyze data and define reporting needs
- Develop Power BI dashboards
- Leverage team members across IT and business community to understand the data
- Analyze and validate data on weekly and monthly basis
- Work with business users and IT teams to bridge the gap between data and business term/logic understanding
- Provide training and assistance to users for generation of ad-hoc reports
- Design and define reporting requirements
- Other duties as assigned.

Minimum Requirements

- College degree preferred
- 3-5 years working with SQL, SSRS, Store Procedures, and overall knowledge of MDX cubes
- Proficiency in advanced Excel functions (formulas, pivot tables, etc) and Power BI
- Experience working with star schema and dimensional model
- Solid understanding of Microsoft Business Intelligence software stack
- Excellent written and verbal communications skills
- Insurance back ground is a plus

Attributes

- Analytical mindset and a data-savvy approach to drive business insights
- Self-motivated with a desire to learn the business
- Team oriented